Notice to Reader

Remote audits will be subject to random on-site audits as part of the quality control and due diligence for VBP+ Delivery Services Inc. The remote audit relies on an open and transparent process. It is a serious offence to intentionally omit or disclose any issues that may be material to this audit. Statement Verifying that the producer has examined all animal health products on hand and verifies that no stale dated product is in the animal health storage.

The person who filled out this electronic document has examined the products in the animal health storage area and verifies that no stale dated product is on hand or any on hand at the time of examination have been discarded. The exception would be any product that a Veterinarian has provided written approval to use after the expiration date and by submitting this form is acknowledgement of the statement
